

Apr 1943

Scale House

Amblecote. Dec. 12th of

My dear Angel

May I tell you how deeply I

Sympathize with you & your dear sister.
To lose two of the Pillars of the family as you have done within so short a time is a devastation as well as a sorrow. But how good to have the love & certain hope & to look back on a life in which our Lord's words were so fully realised - Except ye become as little children - To hear of so sweet a nature & so heartiest life is a help even to outsiders & makes heaven the more desirable.
I am

19p2pneu43

I am so glad dear Harry is going to be near you for this last time -

Please give my affectionate

Sympathy to your dear Sister

Yours with love

Ch. Mason

10 p 1 p n e a 43

1914

Mr. Alfred Brooke

to Wynnstay Park

Kennington

London W.

i 10 p 2 Pneu 43

Miss Honors
Papers,
to PR

House of Education.
Ambleside.

Jan 9th 1894

My dear "Angel"

How sweet of you to think of us in reference to your dear Sister's papers.

Would you care to send me any that you think suitable

I think I might very well get in from time to time papers abt places or pictures or poems, &c.

What a truly beautiful hymn you sent me as a New Year's greeting! I always take pleasure in W.
 Brooke's hymns

110 p 4 pncu 43

House of Education.

Ambleside.

for their literary quality & their delicate Christian feeling.

I read all the news of you from Dear Frances with much pleasure & interest -

With love to you & your sister - affectionately
Chas. Mason

1914 1915 1916

Sir Charles
Brenton's
advice

Elipirneu43

Miss Angel Brock -
10 Rutland House
Marlow Road
Henonipor
London W

111 p2 pncu43

Scale How,
Ambleside.

211 p 3 p 11 1/2

House of Education,
Arlhleside.

How much on sympathies
with Mr. Broth's ministry
My dear Angel
family. 20th 18th

Rebecca W. Stoughton
Brooke

My heart-friends

for you two dear ladies especially, that you have lost another of the noble band of brothers & at the same time, the distinguished head of your family.

It must be a great comfort to you that Mr. Brook does not seem to have suffered much at the end, & so much

creates a comfort-

MS. A. 11. 5. p. 11. v. 43

House of Education,
Ambleside.

That he has so beautifully and fully filled his lips to the very end.

These things are comforts no doubt, but - how much greater a comfort - that he has entered upon what he had long known

III p6 p121 42

how to appreciate
as the one perfect & sufficient joy!

To hear of such a hope realised brings the sweetness of the end nearer to us all - how much more to you who loved him.

Fanny Redjust

211 p 7 p 25 43

House of Education.

Ambleside.

Startled by an exclamation of surprise discovery, followed by the reading of the fine obituary notice from the Times, when she got your letter. I need not say that she is full of 1916 all p8 p11-43

Love for you &
you dear Sister.

With much love
for my loving Sympathy.

We shall long to hear if you both keep fairly well.
With much love
Sympathy, always your Christman

MS. A. 9. 2. 43

Scale Hall,

Ambleside.

29. 4. 1907

My dear "Angel"

Thank you exceedingly for the great service you have done me in getting together an opinion from Sir Lancelot Barnard. It is very kind indeed of you to write at such length.

ilpropneu43

Scale How,
Ambleside.

You I think it is not improbable that many of the Dr. Schott's patients have approached him for advice.

I meant to venture to write but if you get an opportunity, may give him my very grateful thanks.

I wonder what you

ilp11pneu43

Scale How,
Ambleside.

I dear Fanny will do together this summer.

I always enjoy your time together - it does her so much good -

Also, she tells me all the news of you & Miss Cecile - so I
keep up with your doings.

I suppose you too.
Are having this glorious weather with love & sweetest grateful thanks
v. affectionately
Charles Williams

112p1p11e143 1914

House of Education,

Ambleside.

Dec. 15th, 1914

My dear 'Angel' -

Imagine a tardy word of thanks for the Testaments which I was very glad to have & which are circulating among the Belgian colony next-door. My particular Belgians were exceedingly pleased to have them.

I rejoice that dear James

Ms. A. 9. 2. 1. 43

House of Education,
Ambleside.

is going to have the rest of some pleasant hours I share with you. The war has been heavily upon her - all the more so because of the dear nephews. & there is besides the usual year end fog for all of us!

Much love to both dear
Sisters.

affectionately yours
Ch. Mason

P.R.

i 13 p 1 pnc 43

Min Angel Broth

The Hotel

Warden Bridge

Ireland.

Co. Wicklow.

#3p2pneu43

The House of Education, Amblside.

her not does not - could quit strong
 yet. Don't let her go back before she is fit.
 how long you + in I should like to join your delightful trio!
 I know quips + cracks spilling play round
 in a delightful way.
 Tell her dear J. that I can conceive of no circumstances which can or shall take her away now I get her within 3 weeks! She has not told me when she leaves Dublin.

 I rejoice much in the thought of your coming here by & by. We are already here we been to the City since I came back

each time with fervent disciples - + I remember the delightful afternoon you & I spent in the sheltered nook of mountain ground.

How did you with my own 'hand' how I rejoice in the lovely little Sketch of Helming you sent me at - times?
It was very sweet of you to give it me.

Death of W. William Brooke 114 p 1 p new 43

Miss Angel Brooke

Herbert Street.

i/4p2pn-eu43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

14p3pneu43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

My dear Angel
Please let me

enclose a word of warm sympathy to you & your dear
Sisters

It must be an
. hourly address to

и 14 р 4 р не и 43

3

Though perhaps less since your invalid has been able to get about a little but those little essays of strength are themselves sad
when they do not promise better things

и 14p5pтнчз

God be with your dear household - an ever present help

Fanny misses much in not getting you with her in this Paris trip -
A little

She needs a little change - she is getting tired - please give my love to your sisters & with much to you ^{affectionately} Chas. H. R.

2

See so gay & delightful a personage under a cloud of suffering & Mr. William Brooke has been for many years a sort of roof tree over you all has he not?

Fanny feels the sadness for you very much I can see.

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

My dear 'Angel'

I was so pleased to hear of you yesterday.

Do come with her

Brook to the lady

I don't know when 1448 pnew43

Jim to get a bit of his horse - unless she will come on

Sunday -

Long John -

with her Ch. Broder

C. L.

Saty home.

Libri 43

John Angel Brock
Helmuth

i15p2pneu43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

i 15 p 3 p m e u 9 B

The House of Education,
Ambleside

The House of Education,
Amboleside

MS. P. 4. P. 11. 43

The great-pleasure of seeing you.

Please give my warm love to

Mr. Brook &

Yr. Sister - I

do hope I shall get a little of you at when I get back.
I hope you will

MSp5p11a43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

My dear Mr. Brooks

Is it too far to expect you this evening? I feel selfish to think of it - but would it make it prettier behaved from if we went

